Dear Dr. Nanakumo:

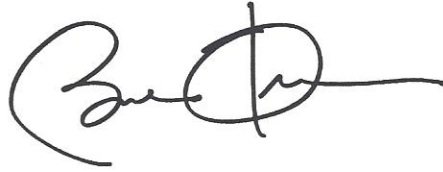

Thank you for writing. From generation to generation, ordinary Americans have led a proud and inexorable march toward freedom, fairness, and full equality under the law. We must stand united to protect liberty and justice for all our citizens, and I appreciate your perspective on lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) rights.

Since I took office, my Administration has worked to broaden opportunity, advance equality, and level the playing field for LGBT people and communities. We have fought to secure justice for all under the Matthew Shepard and James Byrd, Jr., Hate Crimes Prevention Act, and we have taken action to end housing discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity. We expanded hospital visitation rights for LGBT patients and their loved ones, and under the Affordable Care Act, we ensured that insurance companies will no longer be able to deny coverage to someone just because they are lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender. Because we understand that LGBT rights are human rights, we continue to engage with the international community in promoting and protecting the rights of LGBT persons around the world. Because we repealed "Don't Ask, Don't Tell," gay, lesbian, and bisexual Americans can serve their country openly, honestly, and without fear of losing their jobs because of whom they love. And because we must treat others the way we want to be treated, I personally believe in marriage equality for same-sex couples.

More remains to be done to ensure every single American is treated equally, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity. Moving forward, my Administration will continue its work to advance the rights of LGBT Americans. I have consistently called for the legislative repeal of the discriminatory Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA). I have also urged Congress to pass the bipartisan Domestic Partners Benefits and Obligations Act, and a fully-inclusive Employment Non-Discrimination Act. Adoption rights must be secured for LGBT families, and we need to ensure our children are free to learn in supportive environments in school. For information about my commitment to preventing bullying and harassment, along with resources for those facing bullying, please visit www.WhiteHouse.gov/ItGetsBetter and www.StopBullying.gov.

Thank you, again, for writing. To learn more about my Administration's efforts in pursuit of a Nation where all are equal, and all have the opportunity to pursue happiness and live openly and freely, please visit www.WhiteHouse.gov/lgbt.

Sincerely,

President Barack Obama
President of the United States of America
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500-0001

Dear President Barack Obama,

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF YOUR RESPONSE: IT IS NOT MY PERSPECTIVE BUT GOD'S PERSPECTIVE

I hereby thankfully acknowledge receipt of your e-mail response of August 7, 2012 to my letters conveying God's Word and command to you regarding your validation, promotion and legitimization of the abominable practice of homosexuality and gay marriage, which provoke the Wrath of God upon the United States and the entire world. I am thankful that, despite your extremely demanding duties and extremely busy schedule as president of the United States, you purposefully made out time to respond to my letters. Your humble attitude indicates that you are willing to listen, and ipso facto that there is hope. Please pardon my belated acknowledgement of your e-mailed letter; the belatedness is due to the fact that I am also a very busy person.

I shall send you a detailed response at a future a date, as soon as I get the convenience to do so. However, I wish now to respond to, and clarify, two fundamental issues you raised in your response. Firstly, you wrote: "We must stand united to protect liberty and justice for all our citizens, and I appreciate your perspective on lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) rights.” Mr. President, I concur with you; we must stand united to protect true liberty and true justice for all our citizens and conversely, we must stand united against perversion of liberty and perversion of justice for all our citizens. More importantly, the perspective in reference is not my perspective but it is God’s perspective, which must supersede my perspective, your perspective or the perspective of anyone else in the universe. I am simply a messenger of God conveying a message of God from God to you and all mankind.

Secondly, you advocated fairness for all our citizens, and again, I concur with you that we must be fair to all. However, it is neither fairness nor love if we encourage someone to engage in wrongful behavior that will inevitably bring destruction upon the person. If we encouraged someone in a wrongful and destructive path, we would be equally guilty of his wrongful conduct because we were accomplices. Furthermore, we may also be guilty of the destruction of the person because if we had acted in love, we would have saved such a person.

EXHORTATION: TO OBEY IS BETTER THAN SACRIFICE

I wish to remind and exhort us as follows: Does the LORD delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the voice of the LORD? To obey is better than sacrifice and to heed than the fat of rams. For rebellion is like the sin of divination (witchcraft), and arrogance like the evil of idolatry. 1 Samuel 15: 22 – 23.

God bless you and the United States of America,

Ebipamone N. Nanakumo
